50X1-HUM

1. The headquarters of the Czech Armored Force in the northern sector of Bohemia is located at Terezin (N 51/F 53), where it is housed in eight large barracks buildings. Two schools for the training of police dogs are attached to the headquarters. The locality is surrounded by a wall and a canal full of water and about seven meters wide which is crossed by two well-guarded bridges. The buildings have numerous underground rooms for storing ammunition, food and clothing.
2. At Zatec (N 51/F 10), there is a large covered motor park for armored force vehicles of various sizes. It consists of four sheds of reinforced concrete, each of which is subdivided into 14 compartments. Four armored vehicles are kept in each compartment. There are about 200 vehicles in all at the motor park.
3. There is also an open motor park at Zatec which is used by the vehicles used in training troops there.
4. Near the motor park, there are six barracks buildings which house about 1,500 soldiers.
